NC1189 Multistate Project Annual Meeting: Understanding and Managing Scale and Connectivity in Inland and Marine Fisheries and Coupled Human and Natural Systems

Thursday, November 19, 2026
Zoom will be available, link to be sent separately

RSVP to Dana Infante (infanted@msu.edu)

Pre-meeting: Review the draft of the proposal to familiarize yourself with our assignments, review the objectives (see below)

Thursday, November 19

9:00-9:15 am (ET)	Welcome, ice breaker, brief introductions (e.g., name and affiliation) (Kyle Brumm)
9:15-9:20 am	Plan for the day (Dana Infante)
9:20-10:15 am	Lightning talks by meeting participants (3 min max - slides optional) 1. Describe your research expertise 2. Describe how your on-going work ties in to our new objectives
10:15-10:30 am	Break (15 minutes)
10:30 to10:40 am	Briefly summarize changes in Justification and Objectives of new proposal (Dana Infante)
10:40 to 12:00 pm	Review sections yet to be updated in new proposal (Dana Infante) Read, contemplate, and discuss each section: 1. Non-Technical Summary 2. Issues and Justification (DONE) 3. Related, current and previous work 4. Objectives (DONE) 5. Methods 6. Measurement of progress and results 7. Outreach plan 8. Organization and governance 9. Literature cited 10. Photo album 11. Project leadership 12. History
12:00-12:30 pm	Lunch (30 minutes)
12:30-2:30 pm	Continue working through sections as needed
2:30-3:00 pm	Wrap-up and next steps, including planning for a meeting associated with the American Fisheries Society meeting in 2027 (Dana Infante)