Dr. Arlen Leholm

Dear Arlen:

I recently became aware of a multistate activity in the area of “issues management”. This activity is focused on assembling information on agricultural issues of the day and developing approaches to bringing that information forward to a range of audiences. I believe this would be a good candidate for a multistate project and mesh well with on-going activities at local, regional and national levels. I recommend that we encourage the group led by Faith Pepper (University of Georgia) to develop a proposal and seek approval.

Sincerely,

F. William Ravlin
