

NC1190 Catalysts for Water Resources Protection and Restoration:
Applied Social Science Research
2017 Annual Meeting
May 31 – June 2, 2017            AGENDA

University of Wisconsin-Extension Pyle Center, located on the UW-Madison campus.
702 Langdon St., Madison, WI 53706
[More venue Information here: <http://conferencing.uwex.edu/about/pyle-center/>]

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Wednesday May 31

6:30p    Evening social gathering: Location to be determined

Thursday June 1

7:30a    Breakfast
8:15     Welcome, reconnections; review agenda J Arbuckle, Chair NC1190
8:30     Introductions and individual updates (each person give a brief introduction and update on activities in the past year related to NC1190)
10:15    Selection of NC1190 Secretary for 2018
10:30    Break
10:45    Review goals from 2016 meeting; report progress on goals and projects
12:00p   Lunch
12:45    Break out sessions of small groups to outline projects/goals/methods/approaches/funding opportunities
2:30     Break
2:45     Field Trip – Pheasant Branch Conservancy -- stakeholder engagement and university roles
6:00     Dinner at Marshall Park Picnic Area overlooking Lake Mendota

Evening    To be determined

Friday June 2

[Note:    NC1190 members attending the Applied Research Symposium may choose to participate in all or some of the Friday morning schedule for both events]

7:30a    Breakfast
8:00     Re-convene in small group(s) to discuss paper ideas, grant opportunities, project work, and other follow up.
11:45am    Box Lunch (included)

NC1190 ends after lunch. The symposium will continue Friday afternoon and Saturday.