

Agenda

10:00 a.m.-11:00 a.m.	Jayson Lusk	Dealing with Covid-19. What have we learned in our teaching, research, and Extension programs? How might we adjust our programs in the year(s) ahead? Implications for student recruitment and retention, job market, study abroad, future Extension program delivery, etc.
11:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m.	Joshua Rosenbloom	Graduate education and curriculum. For many of us our programs have changed relatively little for 30 years. What changes should we consider for graduate student recruitment, career development, course content, funding of graduate programs, etc?
12:00 p.m. -1:00 p.m.	Lunch Break
1:00 p.m. - 2:00 p.m.	Joe Parcell	Opportunities for sharing graduate courses across our programs. With budget constraints, and the increased access to Zoom/virtual communications, are there opportunities to more efficiently offer some specialized graduate courses across the system?
2:00 p.m.-3:00 p.m.	Barry Barnett	Recruiting and success of underrepresented students, faculty, and staff. What can we learn from each other about successful efforts to increase the diversity and inclusiveness of our departments and programs?
3:00 p.m.	Adjourn
